

Bitpalast® Spacemedia®: your site on CD-ROM

At the moment, your site only reaches those who find you on the Internet. Now it's even easier to acquire even more customers: Send out your own multimedia CD-ROM containing your site with all pages, graphics, and many functions! Your customer just puts the CD on the drive ... and sees all the information you want to provide!

- ✓ This means better customer relations as your customer interacts with your range of products
- ✓ A modern, sustainable advertising medium that raises you above the rest
- ✓ Works without an Internet connection<sup>1</sup>
- ✓ Also works for websites that weren't produced by Bitpalast®<sup>1</sup>
- ✓ No license fees
- ✓ The investment you've already made in the website pays off twice as no new design costs for the CD are incurred
- ✓ You can press as many CDs as you like: even small runs are cost-effective
- ✓ Launches automatically and displays your advertising window on all common Windows™ operating systems
- ✓ Sony™ quality CD-R media
- ✓ Very high quality Hewlett-Packard™ Photoret™ IV precision print of the label and cover, corresponds to 4800x1200 dpi
- ✓ Includes CD jewel case packaging
